Wilmette Generations Award Program Nomination Form

Application Process

The Wilmette Generations Award Program honors families who have lived in Wilmette for at least 50 years, and all eligible families are encouraged to apply. Submissions are accepted at any time during the year, and families are honored at an annual event. The applicant must be a member of the Historical Society (annual memberships are $25 for seniors and students, $35 for individuals, and $50 for families / households). Questions? Contact us at (847) 853-7666 or museum@wilmette.com.

To complete the application, return the following items: 1) completed nomination form and questionnaire (4 pages); this will also be used to prepare the award presentation; 2) at least four photographs of your family. Although photocopies or digital scans of photos are acceptable, the Museum particularly welcomes the donation of original photos; we are happy to supply you with a high-quality scan of each photo we put in our collection.; and 3) membership fee (if applicable) to:
